

Familiarize yourself with phishing attacks

HR and Marketing Teams

What is phishing?

Phishing is a cybercrime in which scammers try to lure you into giving up your personal information by impersonating a trusted source. Phishers can trick you through :

Text messages

Emails

Phone calls

Learn to spot phishing emails

EMAIL EXAMPLE

They want you to take immediate action

The email contains unexpected attachments

URGENT: Verify Account

 account-update@amazon.com

Dear Customer

We're unable to verify your account information and your account will be suspended. To continue using our services, you are required to update your information.

CLICK HERE

<https://www.amazon.com.verify-account.mysite.net>

Or review the attachment

The email address doesn't make sense

The URL is different when you hover over it

How do we stop getting phished?

- Don't share sensitive information
- Don't click on suspicious links and attachments
- Don't fall for urgency
- Regularly check your accounts
- Keep you devices up to date
- When in doubt, call out